

Kenneth Anselment Joins GZA GeoEnvironmental, Inc. in Wisconsin Office

WAUKESHA, WI AND NORWOOD, MA...ISSUED JULY 9, 2008...GZA GeoEnvironmental Inc., a leading environmental and geotechnical consulting firms, has announced that Kenneth Anselment has joined the company as a Senior Project Manager in their Waukesha, WI office.

A resident of Germantown, WI, Anselment brings more than 20 years of experience in litigation support to his new position with GZA. He served as a Senior Assistant General Counsel for A.O. Smith Corporation in Milwaukee, WI, where he managed all product liability litigation for the corporation involving allegations of injury due to exposure to toxic substances and carcinogens. Anselment managed all of the company's cases arising under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act and other environmental laws. He also advised management and plant personnel regarding compliance with federal and state laws and regulations concerning environmental health and safety. In addition, he coordinated product corrective action programs and recalls involving the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission and regulatory agencies in Canada.

Anselment earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Psychology from Northern Illinois University and a Master of Science degree in Rehabilitation Counseling from the University of Arizona. He holds a Juris Doctor in law from Marquette University Law School. Anselment is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Association of Corporate Counsel.

"Kenneth's depth of experience and his expertise in the industry make him a wonderful asset for our clients," said William R. Beloff, President and CEO of GZA GeoEnvironmental, Inc. "Kenneth is a true leader in the field and provides the legal and environmental knowledge that companies need in today's complex marketplace."
