

GZA GeoEnvironmental Named to three Boston Business Journal's "Book of Lists"

NORWOOD, MA, ISSUED, FEBRUARY 23, 2009... GZA GeoEnvironmental, Inc., one of the area's leading environmental and geotechnical consulting firms, has been named to three of the Boston Business Journal's Book of Lists.

Published in a recent edition of the Boston Business Journal, the lists provide a unique source to track the progress of local sectors and the key companies within them.

GZA GeoEnvironmental, Inc., has been named one of the area's "Largest Engineering Firms," "Largest Environmental Engineering Firms" and "Largest Private Companies."

The privately-held company, founded in 1964, moved up to the 5th "Largest Engineering Firms" after ranking 9th the previous year based on revenues. They were also named 4th on the "Largest Environmental Engineering Firm" list and moved up to 53rd from 64th ranking among the area's "Largest Private Companies."

With many years of environmental experience, and qualified engineers, GZA is a highly recognized leader in the industry specializing in site and risk assessment, water resources, solid-waste management, remediation services and regulatory compliance issues.

"We have a loyal customer base to thank for our success and we expect to continue to work hard to achieve the finest individual solutions for all of our clients," said William R. Beloff, President and CEO of GZA GeoEnvironmental, Inc. "As we have expanded our services and staff in Massachusetts and across the country we continue to grow."
