NHSC, Inc. Joins GZA GeoEnvironmental, Inc.

NORWOOD MA AND NEWMARKET NH...ISSUED JANUARY 9, 2009...GZA GeoEnvironmental Inc., a leading environmental and geotechnical consulting firm, has announced that Newmarket, NH-based NHSC, Inc. has joined the GZA Team. NHSC brings experienced professional scientists to GZA with skills in land resource management, wetland and soil inventory, water resource management, subsurface sewage disposal and environmental site assessments. They have served as environmental consultants in the Northeast for over 20 years and currently have offices in Newmarket and Alton, New Hampshire, as well as Columbus Ohio, which will remain in place.

Combining the talent and resources of NHSC and GZA will create one of the largest and most respected environmental and engineering consulting firms in New Hampshire and Northern New England. The entire former staff of NHSC has joined the staff at GZA and the owners of NHSC, Lawrence Morse and James Long, have become Vice Presidents in GZA.

“NHSC, Inc. has built a strong reputation for excellence with their more than 20 years of commitment in bringing the best service and solutions to their clients,” said William R. Beloff, President and CEO of GZA GeoEnvironmental, Inc. “Our combined expertise, the outstanding technical quality of work and our responsiveness to our client’s needs and interests position us in the marketplace as the premier specialty consulting firm for our broad range of clients.”
